Louisville, KY, June 9, 2022 – Atria Senior Living, an industry-leading senior housing management services company has hired Stephanie Haley-Andrews as Senior Vice President of Care. Haley-Andrews will serve as the strategic lead for the company’s care operations empowering residents to stay active, grow and engage in what brings purpose and joy.

She brings more than 20 years of managing the care experience from senior living to emergency medical services to trauma programs. A registered nurse herself, she has developed, led, and scaled nursing initiatives across multiple organizations driving quality care, key clinical outcomes and emergency preparedness. Her research is published in the Journal of Trauma Nursing as well as other peer-reviewed trauma nursing and emergency medicine publications.

“I am thrilled to join Atria, as it continues leading the conversation on what it means to age well and to embrace life after retirement,” said Haley-Andrews. “What I admire most about the company is the scale of quality assurance, data and talented people who put Atria’s residents first.”

Stephanie joins the company as New York City based Joanna Mansfield, who previously held this role, has assumed a new role as SVP, General Manager at Coterie™ Hudson Yards, the new ultra-luxury brand of senior living by Atria.
